STATEMENT BY JOEL RUBIN, POLITICAL DIRECTOR OF J STREET, ON
H.CON.RES.362.

"J Street would like to express regret for having erred in stating earlier that Congressmen Wexler and Frank withdrew their names from H.CON.RES.362. They have not withdrawn their names and are still cosponsors of this resolution, although they have publicly expressed their strong desire to see changes made to the resolution that reflect the amendments that J Street is calling for. We express our regrets and apologies for any confusion that this may have caused.

J Street is the political arm of the "pro-Israel, pro-peace" movement. J Street was started in April of 2008 and has 50,000 online members.
